- Season Limit: No person may take more than twenty (20) adult Chinook Salmon statewide during 2014 salmon seasons occurring prior to September 1, 2014.

Anglers may not fish in waters having special limits while in possession of fish in excess of those limits. (For example: an angler may not fish in a river section with a daily bag limit of one adult salmon if they have harvested one or more adult salmon in another river section with the same or higher adult bag that day.

Anglers must cease fishing for salmon once they have retained their daily, possession or season limit of adult salmon or their overall daily, possession or season limit of fish of any size, whichever comes first.

Snagging

It is unlawful to take or attempt to take salmon by snagging. Snagging shall mean the taking or attempting to take a fish by use of a hook or lure in any manner or method other than enticing or attracting a fish to strike with, and become hooked in its mouth. A salmon that has been hooked anywhere other than its mouth or jaw must be released.

Harvest Rules

- A. Hatchery Chinook Salmon may be kept if the adipose fin has been clipped as evidenced by a healed scar.
- B. Chinook Salmon with an unclipped adipose fin MUST be released.
- C. No person shall have in the field or in transit a hatchery-produced adult anadromous salmon that has been processed by removing the head and tail unless the following conditions are met: 1) the fish has been recorded on the taker’s salmon permit; 2) the fish is processed and packaged with the skin naturally attached to the flesh including a portion with a healed, clipped, adipose fin scar and 3) it must be packaged in a manner that the number of fish harvested can readily be determined. No person shall process salmon until they are ashore and done fishing for the day. No person shall transport processed salmon via boat. Jack salmon may not be processed while in the field or in transit. Any processed salmon count towards an angler’s possession limit while in the field or in transit.
- D. All salmon that are hooked, landed and reduced to possession must be killed immediately after landing and shall be counted in the limits of the person hooking the fish.

Releasing Fish

Any salmon with an intact adipose fin that is landed or any salmon that is landed but not reduced to possession must be released. Anglers should strive to minimize handling and stress on each fish caught and released to maximize their chance to survive.

Tribal Fisheries

Tribal fisheries also occur in Idaho. They are governed by the Tribes and have different rules than Idaho sport fisheries. Please be respectful of these different fishing traditions.

Permit Validation

When an adult Chinook Salmon has been hooked, landed and reduced to possession, the angler hooking the fish must immediately:

- A. Cut out and completely remove one numbered notch from the permit; and
- B. Look up the location code number from the list below and write it in the space provided; and
- C. Enter in space provided, the month and day fish was caught.

Note:

- When a salmon is released unharmed, as in catch-and-release fishing, the angler is not required to make an entry on the permit.
- While anglers may retain salmon less than 24 inches in length as part of their bag and possession limit they are not required to record them on their permit.

For example, a salmon 24 or more inches in length kept from the South Fork Salmon River on June 22 would be entered as:

Fish	Bird	Month	Day	Location Code	Month	Day	Location Code	Fish	Bird
1		6	22	21				21
2								22
3								23
4								24
